THREE HEROES OF SHERWOOD

OVERVIEW

FUN IN THE FOREST!

When the Sheriff of Nottingham decides to clear the forest to rid himself of do-gooders Robin Hood and William Tell, he didn't know what he was in for! Buck Rogers arrives from the future in his UFO to save the forests and his hero mates. The Sheriff's "Poison Ivy League" have a change of heart and turn against their boss.

INVOLVEMENT

Projects on "Save the Forests" may be applicable in your school. Art and craft lessons to create forests and backdrops will involve many students, plus follow up with discussion groups and written essays. Reports from internet forums can crystallise individual thinking on the subject. Building a space craft with cardboard, alfoil and lots of colours will keep many busy. Plus, scientific instruments, bows and arrows, broad axes, shields and swords make for lots of fun in the forest! Science lessons may result from research into orbits and space distances.

SONGS

"Poison Ivy"

"William Tell Overture" with modern words

"Robin Hood Song"

"Winter Round"

"Background Music for Space Craft"

Alternative songs appropriate to the generation may be used.

LENGTH

The Play is about 35 mins long. It may be lengthened by adding other songs into ACT 1, 2 and 3. An Interval could be inserted before ACT 4.

The Play

ACT 1 Scene 1

Inside view of a lavish state room with throne.

The Sheriff of Nottingham receives a report from Sir Blackheart about progress by the Poison Ivy Legions. They have the task of clearing the forests where Robin Hood and his merry men live. The dastardly destroyers have already cleared William Tell out of his forest and now they are preparing new broadaxes for the forest around Robin Hood.

ACT 1 Scene 2

The Poison Ivy Legion appears in front of Curtains singing their theme song "Poison Ivy". The Choir joins them.

Inside view of a Spacecraft, with a backdrop looking from space to a section of planet Earth below.

The Curtains opens to reveal Buck Rogers and his crew orbiting and approaching mother Earth. They have come from the 21st century and realise through their viewers, that there's trouble afoot in Sherwood forest, still in the 14th century. They decide to land in a clearing and help the two heroes in distress.

ACT 3 Scene 1

In Sherwood Forest, around a campfire

Robin Hood and merry men are discussing how they might repel the Legions of Sheriff Rogue. William Tell and family are also present, offering help to Robin and Little John. Suddenly they see a spacecraft arriving.

ACT 3 Scene 2

Buck Rogers and crew introduce themselves, offering to use their future technology to right the wrongs.

ACT 4

Buck, Robin and William Tell capture the Poison Ivy Legion and apply the Thought Inducing helmets to them. Sheriff Rogue and Sir Blackheart suddenly arrive to inspect progress and too are captured by the 3 Heroes.

Buck and crew have to leave to catch the Time Warp.

Curtains open to reveal a lavish "Sheriff's Chambers". Sheriff is behind a huge desk in fancy robes, writing on a scroll with a long quill. There are guards in chain mail with spears, crossed swords over a mantel piece, scrolls on shelves. Attendants, court jesters, dancers if stage permits.

An attendant enters, Herald beckons, and attendant whispers in Herald's ear. Attendant exits as Herald walks towards Sheriff ...

HERALD: (bowing, then in a loud voice) My Lord Sheriff, the knight of Forestry Works has arrived.

SHERIFF: (beckons) Then send him in. I'm waiting for his report on progress in Sherwood Forest.

HERALD: (loudly to off-stage) Send in Sir Blackheart, Knight of Forestry Works.

(Enter Sir Blackheart)

SHERIFF: Aah! Sir Blackheart. Let me have your report ... (walks out from behind table) ... how are things progressing in Sherwood?

BLACKHEART: Things are progressing very well my Lord. I have a legion of men in the forest. They have just finished clearing the whole area where that nuisance William Tell lives. We have cut down ALL the trees, got rid of ALL the animals ... nothing could live there now. William Tell and his men have had to flee from the forest, my Lord.

SHERIFF: Good ... Good! That's very good news, Sir. That nuisance, William Tell, is ONE pest out of the way, now we can start on that other one, Robin Hood ... and his (sarcastically) ... his merry men! Ha! Ha! ... always dressed in Lincoln green ... Ha! Ha! (laughs with Sir Blackheart) ... "Always helping the poor people," they say. Ha! Ha! (Then change to serious) ... Huh! I want the forest RID of them, you hear, RID of them!

BLACKHEART: My Lord, I have moved a legion of my best men into the area where Robin Hood hides out ... the Poison Ivy Legion ... (picks up a broad axe and waves it about) ... they are my nastiest, obnoxious, fiercest bunch of axemen in the whole realm. They'll get rid of Robin Hood AND the forest!

SHERIFF: (Walking up close to Blackheart) They'd better destroy that forest fast you hear, or this axe will see the back of YOUR neck! (Stomps around angrily, thinking ... then turns to Herald) This ... this Poison Ivy Legion, do they have (pointing) a good supply of broadaxes?

HERALD: (bowing low) Yes, my Lord. A new batch of broad axes was assigned to the Poison Ivy Legion yesterday.

SHERIFF: Well ... all right then! Those scoundrels break more axes than wood choppers at the Royal Easter Show. (Or appropriate show)

HERALD: The new axes have hardened steel, my Lord. They'll last a lot longer.

BLACKHEART: Robin Hood hasn't got a chance against you this time Sheriff ... not with these new blades (rubbing the axe).

SHERIFF: (Marching around rubbing his chin) At last! ... At Last! ... I'll finally be rid of Robin Hood and his, Ha! Merry men. This is a plan that cannot fail.

BLACKHEART: If we cannot remove Robin Hood from the forest, we'll remove the forest from Robin Hood.

SHERIFF: I should have said that Blackheart!

BLACKHEART: Sorry Sir! Would you like to say again ... it with me?

TOGETHER: If we can't remove Robin Hood from the forest, (other join in) then we'll remove the forest from Robin Hood.

SHERIFF: (Shouts) Tell your men to have no mercy, Blackheart. Cut down ALL the trees, remove ALL the scrub, kill ALL the little animals. I'll take the "Merry" out of them. Robin Hood must be put out of action, just like William Tell and his men.

ACT 1 scene 2

Front of Curtains

(A marching drum sounds as the Poison Ivy Legion marches on, in front of curtains. They can be up to about 10 singers with broad axes, dressed in scruffy forestry, army gear. They march to the drum sound, choreographed with swinging axes and lethal looks. They follow their leader who stops and others crash into him ...)

LEADER: (To audience) G'day! Pleased to meet Ya! We're Sheriff Rogue's men. Give a big rousing welcome to (indicating) The Poison Ivy Legion.
(After applause settles) This here's me mate Choppa! Say Hello to Choppa!
(Choppa waves his axe).

CHOPPA: G'day! G'day!

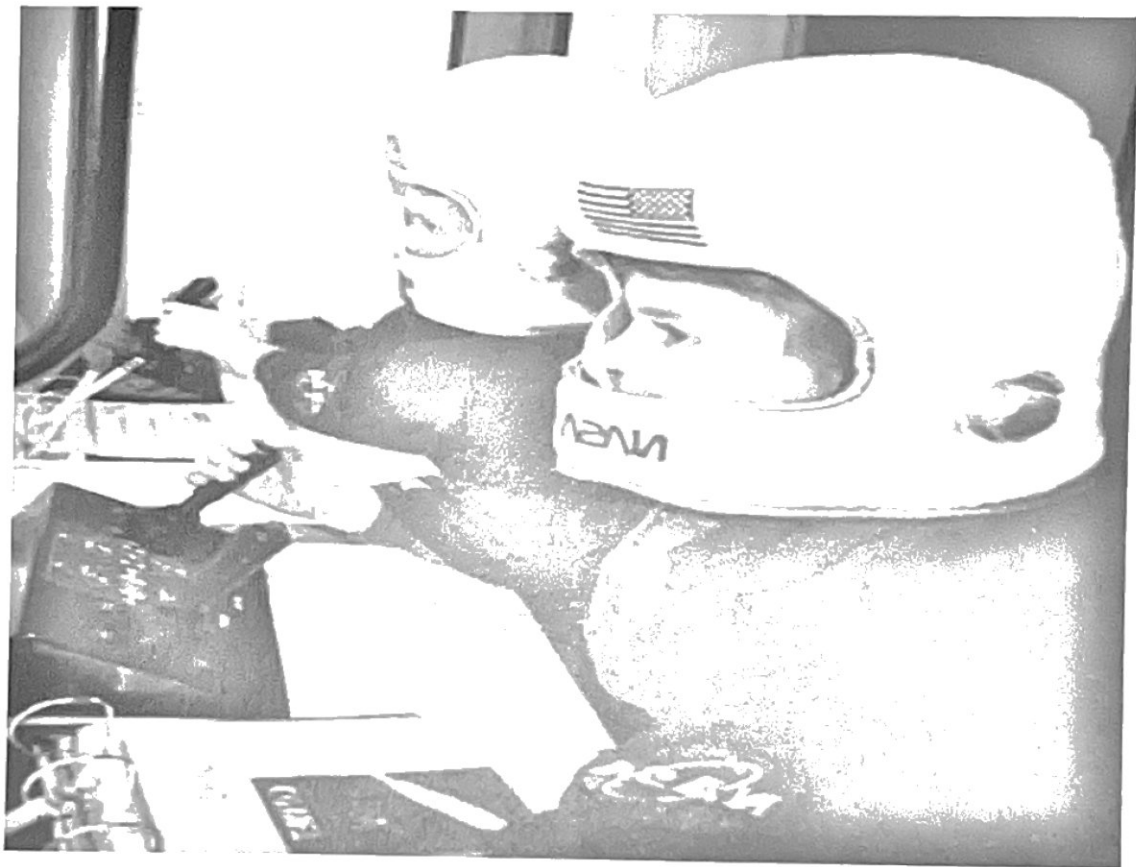

LEADER: We'd like to sing you's our theme song.

CHOPPA: Yeh! It goes like this ... 1, 2, 3, 4

Song: "Poison Ivy" to the words ...
"We come on like a rose ... etc."

Poison Ivy Legion marches off stage.

ACT 2 Scene 1

Aboard the Spacecraft

(Curtains open to display inside a spacecraft [a la Dr Who] with instruments, flashing lights, TV monitors etc. On board are Buck Rogers, Wilmer Good, Commander Hero and Tweeky)

BUCK: (Looking into a monitor) We're approaching good old mother Earth, Commander. Right on time.

TWEEKY: Well pick me up and put me down, home sweet home. Hot dog!

BUCK: I'll zoom in with the Laser scope and pick up some of the action down there.

COMMANDER: Careful Buck, remember we've crossed the time barrier. We're somewhere back in the 16th century on Earth.

BUCK: Yeh! I can't believe we left Earth in the 25th century!

WILMER: There's a close up on the monitor Commander ... (all take a look) ... it seems like a forest area ... no sign of life yet.

TWEEKY: Uh! Oh! Where did everybody go?

COMMANDER: Use the fine tuner Wilmer ... Buck bring up the sound a little more.

(Buck and Wilmer fiddle with knobs and headphones. The sound of the "Poison Ivy" song increases in volume so audience can hear, then begins to fade. All look at each other whimsically.)

BUCK: I don't know who's singing that song, but they need some lessons!

TWEEKY: Pick me up and put me down, they sure do Buck.

COMMANDER: Wilmer, can you get a better response on that visual monitor?

WILMER: Tweeky, hand me that Solar Visual Response Rod ... I'll energise the receptor beams to improve the reception.

TWEEKY: (Hands Wilmer a foot-long bright shiney/glowing rod) Coming up!

WILMER: (Places rod into slot in instrument panel and fiddles with knobs)

Hah! That's better! ... (Excitedly) Hey, who's this?

(All rush to look into monitor)

COMMANDER: It looks like Robin Hood and his merry men ... that must be Sherwood Forest!

BUCK: Yes! And look over here to the right ... there's someone running ... he's wearing a monk's cloak ... could that be Friar Tuck?

COMMANDER: Looks like he's had a real fright, running like that. What's he running from?

BUCK: Wilmer, zoom back to the edge of the forest ... see what he's running from. ("Poison Ivy" song is heard again)

WILMER: He's running from a fellow with a broad axe.

BUCK: Look over here. (On another monitor?) There's a legion of woodchoppers with big axes, clearing the forest.

WILMER: So that's it! Those awful fellows singing that nasty song are clearing the forest where Robin Hood lives.

TWEEKY: Uh! Oh! Here's trouble!

BUCK: This looks like a situation for ... (to audience) BUCK ROGERS! ... do you think we should drop in and lend a hand? (Repeat until audience responds "Yes!" loudly)

TWEEKY: (As curtains close) Well pick me up and put me down, let's go poison some ivy down there!

ACT 3 Scene 1

In Sherwood Forest

Curtains open to reveal a campfire scene in the forest. Cast is sitting around a fire preparing bows, sharpening arrows, toasting birds on a spit, poking fire with sticks etc.

Present are William Tell, his Son, Robin Hood, Maid Marion, Little John, Allan Adale and others to fill the stage.

Choir sings "Overture from William Tell". As the applause fades Marion modulates into the song "Robin Hood, Robin Hood riding through the glen." Choir joins her to conclude the song.

LITTLE JOHN: That sure is a pretty song Maid Marion ...

ROBIN: ... and a pretty singer too I declare! (arm around Marion)

LITTLE JOHN: Wouldn't it be grand if we could be like this always, men ... (puts a log on the fire) ... living happily here in Sherwood Forest without any worries.

MARION: And it would be so wonderful if we could just share the forest with the birds ... the animals ... the streams.

ROBIN: (holding Marion's hand) Well if Sheriff Rogue would just leave us alone

MARION: ... and leave the forest alone ...

ROBIN: We could live here in safety! (walks around fire, picks up bow and arrows, puts his foot up on a log) ... hey! Will ... (pause) Little John ... (pause) Allan Adale ...

ALLAN ADALE: We could continue helping the poor people, But the Sheriff's latest plan is dreadful!

LITTLE JOHN: (standing and picking up his long staff) But we don't have enough men, Robin, to stop that awful Poison Ivy Legion. (all No! Ney! Not enough! Etc.) William Tell (indicating) and all of his family have had to join us. But we're still not enough!

ALLAN ADALE: Will's part of the forest has been completely obliterated ...

ROBIN: ... (long pause as all wait anxiously) We will have to send for more help! (Walks over to William Tell) Will, we are certainly glad you and your men are here to help our cause ... as you can see, there are only a few of us wearing Lincoln green ... (holds his lapel outward) ... we really need your men ... and women ... to stop these scoundrels!

WILLIAM TELL: Robin, we're happy to help. We've witnessed Sheriff Rogue's destruction of the forests personally ... we had to flee from that part of the forest.

WILL'S SON: We saw them chopping the forest down ... like cutting wheat in the field!

WILLIAM TELL: The Sheriff's strongest Legion of axemen call themselves the "Poison Ivy Legion.

WILL'S SON: And they're supplied huge broadaxes by that good-for-nothing, Sir Blackheart!

ROBIN: Even ALL of us banding together may not be enough. There must be someone else who can help us! (music starts ... Choir sings "Winter Round" as cast again sit around campfire, join in singing, looking a little forlorn)
(Sound of a horn off-stage interrupts song ending)

ALLAN ADALE: (jumps to his feet and points) That's Will Scarlet's signal!

MARION: (excitedly) It's Will and Friar Tuck ... they're running ... they look exhausted! (Enter Will Scarlet and Friar Tuck, puffing and panting)

ROBIN: Will, Tuck, what is it? What have you to report?

FRIAR TUCK: Robin ... (leaning on Robin's shoulder, puffing) ... we've seen them. They're here ... in our forest ... a legion of them ... (panting) big shiny broadaxes!

WILL SCARLET: They're attacking our forest ... like beavers ... cutting down every tree, burning undergrowth, chasing animals ...

FRIAR TUCK: Not a thing is left standing ...

WILL SCARLET: They're going to cut down the whole forest and take away our homes.

ROBIN: We must not let this happen! If they keep it up, the forest will not survive.

MARION: Oh! Robin! What are we going to do? (Sound of a spacecraft offstage)

WILLIAM TELL: What's that noise? Everybody on guard! (All jump up and face offstage with their arrows and spears ready)

ALLAN ADALE: (all now looking upward) Sounded like it was coming from up in the trees over there!

ROBIN: (All see the flying object making the noise. All express Ooh! Aah! What is it? Etc.) (Shouting) Careful everyone! It's some kind of flying, shining object!

MARION: It's coming down!

ROBIN: I'll put an arrow into its belly! (Fires an arrow upward across the stage)

WILLIAM TELL: It bounced off Robin.

MARION: Look, it's on the ground now. (All look offstage)

FRIAR TUCK: Look out ... its mouth is opening ...

ROBIN: Mouth? Doesn't look like a mouth Tuck, it's a flight of stairs!

WILL SCARLET: There's people coming out!

WILLIAM TELL: Stand back everyone ... it may be another trick from Sheriff Rogue.

BUCK: (from offstage) Hello there! We come in peace. (All look at each other with Ooh! and Aah!) Robin Hood, is that you? Robin Hood?

ROBIN: Yes, (stepping forward to the voice offstage) It is I, Robin Hood ... of Sherwood Forest ... do you really come in peace? (All prepare their weapons)

BUCK: Yes! We come in peace. May we enter your campsite?

ACT 3 Scene 2

ROBIN: Enter in peace. (All put weapons down as Buck Rogers and others enter)

BUCK: (Entering with hand outstretched to shake) My name is Buck Rogers, and these are my friends ... Wilmer ... Commander Hero ... and Tweeky.

COMMANDER: We don't want you to be alarmed ...

BUCK: ... you see, we are from your future. We lived here on the Earth in the 21st century. You are here in the 15th century. We have landed here back in your century because we know of your problem.

WILMER: And we would like to help you against that Sheriff of Nottingham.

ROBIN: ... we certainly welcome you to our forest!

LITTLE JOHN: Sheriff Rogue of Nottingham is trying to clear the forests to get rid of us, William Tell and his family, and anyone else who gets in his way.

MARION: The Sheriff wants more taxes from the poor farmers.

FRIAR TUCK: We're trying to help them!

WILLIAM TELL: He wants them to stay poor so he can control them ... like slaves!

TWEEKY: Well pick me up and put me down!

BUCK: The last time huge forests were cleared around the Earth, it effected the Earth's climate ...

COMMANDER: ... we were there!

MARION: Yes, the weather turned real nasty all around the Earth.

BUCK: So we don't like to see the forests being cut down in your century ... especially for the wrong reasons by these "Poison Ivy" persons.

WILLIAM TELL: You should see the forests over where we used to live.

WILMER: Actually, we did see the destruction Will, on our Visual Scanner.

FRIAR TUCK: Visual Scanner??

BUCK: If your Sheriff is going to do that to the whole forest we'll have to help you stop him.

COMMANDER: The forests provide us with Oxygen.

FRIAR TUCK: Oxygen??

COMMANDER: Yes, it's a part of the air we breathe. (Tuck turns to audience and mouths "Oh!")

BUCK: How about we get our heads together and plan a course of action?

ROBIN: Right, with our knowledge of the forests and your knowledge of the future we should be able to give those rogues a huge shock!

WILMER: (To Buck) We could use our Nerve Paralysing Light, Buck. Just set it up in the forest, wait for them to arrive and switch on!

TWEEKY: Hot dog!!

BUCK: Yes, that way the men in that Poison Ivy Legion could be just frozen by the light ... then we capture them!

COMMANDER: Then with our "Thought Inducing Helmet" we convince them that the forests are beautiful places ... they must remain standing.

LITTLE JOHN: Wouldn't the Sheriff have something to say about that!

ROBIN: Sure would Little John! This is the sort of help we were praying for Buck. Can our men be of any assistance to you?

BUCK: Sure can Robin! Let's all get together on this. We'll soon teach that Sheriff Rogue a trick or two.

TWEEKY: Well pick me up and put me down. Some action at last!

ACT 4

Leave the previous scene set up. Add a few trees and shrubs. Darken the stage for a night time scene.

Cast enters including Maid Marion, Robin hood and his men, Buck Rogers, Wilmer and Tweeky. They stand around examining a machine from the space craft. Commander Hero enters carrying "electrical" looking equipment.

BUCK: Right Commander. Let's set the Nerve Lights here. (Urgently) Quick, I can hear them coming. (Unrolls long cable, places large floodlight or strobe light behind bushes on stage.)

ROBIN: (Sound of "Poison Ivy" song coming from off stage) Hide everyone, get behind the trees and bushes.

(Poison Ivy Legion march onto stage singing their song)

LEADER: Right men, this is the area where Robin Hood lives. Let's do the same as we did to William Tell ... (loudly) Destroy!! (The men all Yes! OK! Let's do it! Etc. raise their axes and machetes, begin to chop into any tree or shrub they are near.)

BUCK: (as the chopping starts) Now, Commander, switch on the lights! (Commander with a switch in his hands, faces the audience and hits the lights!)

(The axemen turn around startled, then freeze like statues in various poses, unable to move.)

LITTLE JOHN: Now we've got them. Help me tie them to the trees. (All Poison Ivy stay frozen, while others drag them to shrubs and trees and tie them up.)

WILLIAM TELL: (Running onto the stage with his group) Robin, we saw this thing in the sky! (Looking around) Wow! What's going on?

ROBIN: Just wait 'til you hear about this! I'll tell you soon! (Tell and his people cringe and watch)

WILMER: (When all are tied up) Now we can put the Thought Helmets on them! (Commander and others grab some crash helmets with antennae and visers on them.)

BUCK: (While everyone is fitting the helmets in the background, Buck, Tweezy, Robin and Marion move closer to audience) This is what we do Robin. Wilmer will now ask a question. To induce the answer into their minds, through the Thought Helmets, all of us shout the answer loudly, at the helmets.

TWEEZY: (To William Tell) Isn't that spooky!

BUCK: Are you all ready? Shout out the answers! (Turns to Wilmer) Right, Wilmer, it's all yours.

WILMER: Men of the Legion, can you hear me? (All nod their helmets)

TWEEZY: Now we've got them!

WILMER: Do you promise never to harm a tree of the forest, ever again?

ALL: (Including the Merry men and the Legion) Yes, we promise!

WILMER: Do you promise never to harm the animals of the forest ever again?

ALL: Yes, we promise!

WILMER: Do you promise to help the poor people of Nottingham and leave these (indicating Robin etc.) good people alone?

ALL: Yes, we promise!

BUCK: (To Robin and William Tell) We will release ONE of them now and show you how it works. (Unties Leader of the Legion and passes him a broadaxe. Merry men draw their arrows.)

WILMER: (To archers) It's Ok men. (As they lower their arrows, the Leader looks at his axe then breaks the handle over his knee).

(All cheer and release the others, walking around shaking hands and giving hugs. Legion break their axe handles and take off any armour.)

ROBIN: (When merriment fades) Buck, Wilmer, Commander and Tweeky, we'd like to thank you all very much for your help. We would have been in deep trouble here in our world if you had not seen our plight.

TWEEKY: Aw! It was nothing. (Holds Marion's hand.)

BUCK: Glad to help! We hope now you can live here in peace with your friends, here on good old mother Earth.

COMMANDER: Unfortunately, we must leave now. We must leave to escape the Time Warp ... to get back to our Century.

(Suddenly Friar Tuck runs on to the scene.)

FRIAR: (Runs around Tweeky and Buck looking strangely and scared. Grabs Robins arm and hides behind him shouting ...) The Sheriff's coming. The Sheriff's coming with Sir Blackheart! (Still looking around at the scene.)

(Robin and all except Legion hide)

SHERIFF: (With Blackheart, marching boldly onto the scene, pointing largely at the Legion) Why aren't you men chopping trees? (Still hasn't noticed Buck and friends who moved to side of stage). Your orders were to clear this forest, not have a picnic! (Blackheart grabs Leader and another by the arms to arrest them.)

LEADER: That's just it Sheriff. We want to keep this forest, so we CAN have a picnic!

SHERIFF: What? Off with his head!

BLACKHEART: (Noticing Buck and Merry men moving in with space weapons and arrows) Come here you coward! (Pulls leader in front of himself for protection.)

ROBIN: (All now surrounding the scene with weapons) Hold it right there Sir Blackheart and YOU Sheriff Rogue.

MARION: You are completely surrounded. (pointing an arrow)

ROBIN: Robin Hood here!

LITTLE JOHN: Little John here!

WILLIAM TELL: William Tell here! (Sheriff ducks behind Blackheart.)

BUCK: Buck Rogers here!

BLACKHEART: and SHERIFF: Buck WHO?

SHERIFF: (Shouts) Legionnaires, arrest these men!

LEADER: (Pulling away from Blackheart's grip) Sorry Sheriff, but we don't work for you anymore. We are on their side ... (walking around them) ... we can see the true beauty of the forests.

CHOPPA: And we can also see how your name suits you, Sheriff ROGUE.

LEADER: (The Legionnaires grab Blackheart and the Sheriff and start to tie them up) Let's take them to King Edward. We'll have them put on trial. They'll be punished for their GREED. (Legion exits with Blackheart and Sheriff.)

COMMANDER: (William Tell secretly pointing saying "Who's that?") Robin, as I said we have to leave. It's time right now.

MARION: Oh! Must you go? Just when we were getting to know you ... (looking down) ... and Tweeky.

TWEEKY: Well pick me up and put me down, I thought she hadn't noticed me!

MARION: (Leaning to kiss Tweeky on the helmet) Goodbye Tweeky! (Gives him a kiss) ... I hope we meet again.

(Tweeky falls into the arms of others)

BUCK: He's fainted! (They carry Tweeky off) Now we really must go. Goodbye everyone!

ALL: (As Buck and group leave the stage) Bye! Hurrah! Ta! Ta! (Etc.)

(Buck and group exit.)

ROBIN: (Puts arm around William Tell) Well this has been a day to remember, always ... won't it!

WILLIAM: The Sheriff of Nottingham has been arrested ... the Poison Ivy Legion have changed their nasty ways.

MARION: And we met another great hero, Buck Rogers ... (sound of a rocket taking off, off stage ... all look in that direction and point). There he goes ...

ROBIN: Do you think people will ever believe us?

WILLIAM: Well let's ask them ... (to audience) Do you believe the forests can be saved? (This can be done by any member of cast, good with audience ... have the audience involved, as music starts to conclude with a Finale by cast and Choir)
